Ragging is any disorderly conduct that has the effect of teasing or handling with rudeness any student, which causes or is likely to cause annoyance, harm to or raise fear in a junior so as to adversely affect the psyche of the junior.

Ragging in all its forms is strictly prohibited in and out of the campus. Ragging constitutes one or more of the following act:

- Any verbal or written act which has effect of teasing, or treating with rudeness that affects mental health and self confidence of a student
- Any act that generates a sense of shame, torment or embarrassment so as to adversely affect the psyche or physique of a student
- Any act or physical abuse including physical assaults, sexual abuse, obscene gestures that can cause harm or danger to a student
- Financial extortion or exploitation with regards to completion of academic tasks

CDCRI has a zero tolerance policy with regards to ragging. The institution has taken various steps toward making it a ragging free campus.

- All undergraduate/ postgraduates seeking admission have to submit an Antiragging undertaking at the time of admission from student/parent/guardian as per Hon. Supreme court 2009 and DCI regulation (Annexure-II of section 12).
- Newly admitted students are sensitized on ragging and their rights in First year orientation program.
- The college makes arrangement for a program on “Measures for curbing the menace of Ragging in educational institutions” in the college conducted by DCI.
- Antiragging report is sent to DCI half yearly as per the set guidelines
- Anti-Ragging committee consisting of Dean, senior faculty members and student representative has been formed that monitors the campus, takes feedback from antiragging squad, wardens and other students to check for any untoward incidence.
- Anti- Ragging squad consisting of staff members and conducts surprise raids in the hostel.
- Members of mentors cell interact with junior and senior students regularly
- The college campus is covered by CCTV to monitor any such activity
- Consumption of alcohol has been banned within the college and hostel premises.
